New Partners at Crystal Creek Lodge

Heather and Alex Oberholtzer, employees of Crystal Creek Lodge since 2002, have been made Members of Crystal Creek Lodge, LLC. While we all wear a number of hats at CCL, Heather primarily fields inquiries and takes care of our guest's reservations while Alex flies a Beaver and guides guests.

Pebble Mine Update

Rio Tinto, a British and Australian mining company, announced April 7 it was ending its involvement in the Pebble project by donating its shares to two Alaska Native charitable organizations. Rio Tinto owns a 19.1 percent stake in Northern Dynasty Minerals, Ltd., - the Canadian company that owns the rights to Pebble.

The news comes after a series of major setbacks to the Pebble project. In September, London-based Anglo American withdrew from Pebble Partnership, taking a $300 million hit. In December, following Anglo American's decision, Rio Tinto said it would re-evaluate its investment. Then in February, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency announced it would temporarily block permitting of the mine pending a special review under a rarely-used section of the Clean Water Act that has potential halt development permanently.

New Adventure Possibilities at Crystal Creek

Whether you want to add a day of adventures to a fishing trip or a day of fishing to an adventure trip, our new Cessna opens many new possibilities for our guests. Review the options at the Crystal Creek Lodge web site under Adventures.

Yantarni Salmon Camp Has a New Web Site

Low numbers of guests, high numbers of fish. Set in one of the most remote regions of Alaska, think of it as fishing the Last Frontier of the Last Frontier. Yantarni is available to Crystal Creek Lodge guests in late August through September or can be booked as a separate destination: www.yantarni.com

Private Reserve September 29 Week with Eight Persons

Book eight persons for either a 4 day or full week trip beginning September 29 and have the lodge, staff and aircraft to yourselves. Big Rainbows on the Naknek, fantastic waterfowl hunting, and insane trout and char fishing is available. Toss in a few choices from our adventure menu and you'll have quite a trip. Please call for details.

New Aircraft added to the Crystal Creek Lodge Fleet

We're adding more airplanes, not more guests. In addition to three DeHavilland Beaver aircraft on floats we are adding a Cessna 185 on wheels to our fleet of immaculate aircraft. The Cessna 185 on wheels is about 30% faster than a Beaver on floats. Ours will be used for longer-range trips such as Yantarni Salmon Camp, the walrus tours and specialty trips into Becharof National Wildlife Refuge and Katmai National Park.

New Coffee Table Photo Book for Crystal Creek Lodge Guests

We have just completed an all-new hardbound 11x14 coffee table photo book about the Crystal Creek Lodge experience. Beginning this year we will offer guests the opportunity to customize one with their own photos and text. Review it at www.crystalcreeklodge.com/print-brochures
